FIVE IRISH CABINET OFFICERS. Are to Compose the New Ministry in New Republic.

Dublin, Jan. 22 .- According to the provisional constitution of the Irish repub-lic now before the "dail circann," legislative powers are to be vested in deputies elected from existing parliamentary constituents. The ministry will consist of a president and four executive officers -secretaries of finance, home affairs, foreign affairs and national defense. All revenues will be raised on the vote of the "dail eireann." The constitution may be altered upon seven days' notice.

De Valera and Arthur Griffith will probably be appointed Irish delegates to the peace congress to-day.

Ireland's declaration of independence

read as an "address to free nations" before the Sinn Fein assembly yesterday,

"Ireland's independence is demanded. By the freedom of the seas her great harbors will be opened to all nations, instead of being amonopoly to England. Today these harbors are empty, and idle, Brandon, solely because Ireland, irrevocably determined at the dawn of the promised era she will suffer foreign domination no longer, calls every free nation to uphold her national claim to complete independence as an Irish republic against the arrogant pretensions of England which were founded on fraud and sustained by overwhelming military occupation. She demands to be confronted publicly with England at the congress, that the civilized world, having judged be-tween English wrong and Irish right, may guarantee Ireland its permanent support for the maintenance of national
